

George Davis quits Qualcomm; joins Intel as CFO

Company Wire, April 03, 2019

George Davis, chief financial officer (CFO), Qualcomm has put in his papers to join Intel as CFO. At Intel, he will report to chief executive officer (CEO), Bob Swan. Davis had been working at Qualcomm as CFO since 2013 and has also been a part of the executive committee of Qualcomm 's board of directors.

In the meantime, Qualcomm has appointed David Wise, the company's treasurer as interim finance chief while it searches for a suitable replacement.

Intel has been lacking a permanent CFO since when Swan, the then CFO was promoted to become Intel's CEO in January 2019. Prior to joining Qualcomm, Davis and Swan served as the CFO and as the member of the board of directors of Applied Materials respectively.
